

In-Home Caregiver Program

Work in one of the most compassionate career in the convenience of a home setting. If you love taking care of children, elderly and persons with high medical needs in a country that respects and protects your rights and freedom, the Canadian In-home Caregiver Program offers you this opportunity.

Other advantages of the Canadian In-Home Caregiver Program:

- You may voluntarily live in your employer's house at no cost
- You can live out of your employer's house
- Competitive wage with Canadians
- You are covered by government medical insurance plan
- You are eligible for Employment Insurance
- Current proposal to bring your family while working
- Option to extend your work permit at the end of your contract
- Available pathway to permanent residency for you and your dependents
- Work on open work permit (any employer, and position) while permanent resident application is in process

You must have:

- At least one year caregiver work experience
- And/or at least 6 months caregiver or related training
- Basic English proficiency in an unsupervised work setting
- Medically and security cleared

Once you identify an eligible employer willing to hire you, we offer comprehensive immigration services to prepare the employer's Labour Market Impact Assessment application, which is required prior to applying your work permit, and your caregiver work permit application. Find out about our professional services and affordable fees. Click the Contact Us now!